Itinerary Overview:

- We will pick you up at your hotel between 7:30 and 8:00 AM and drive for approximately one hour to the dock, where you will be greeted by the Emberá community in their traditional dugout canoe. As we journey upstream, we recommend bringing a raincoat to protect against water splashes. Along the way, you will have the opportunity to appreciate the stunning flora and fauna of the region.
- Upon arriving at the village, you will be welcomed with traditional music, and the villagers will graciously invite you into their community. After a brief exploration of the village on your own, lasting about 10 minutes, you will attend a short presentation on Emberá culture, traditions, and handicrafts.
- Following the presentation, a delicious lunch featuring fish or chicken served with patacones (fried plantains) will be provided. Once you finish your meal, you will have free time to explore further, purchase exquisite handcrafted souvenirs, receive a temporary tattoo, or engage in conversation with the Emberá people.
- To conclude the experience, the villagers will perform traditional shamanic and celebratory dances and music before we board the canoe for our return downstream to Panama City.

Important Note:

Please bring cash, as the village does not have a card payment system for souvenir purchases.
